GRIN Verlag Jul 2011, 2011. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 222x149x22 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2002 in the subject History Europe - Germany - Modern History, grade: IB-Diploma full score, Waterford Kamhlaba United World College of Southern Africa, course: History, language: English, abstract: This investigation, including the examination of unpublished primary sources, accounts for the Fall of the Berlin Wall as a historical event. The disintegration of the Warsaw Pact along with the interior social, economic and political problems in the GDR are examined as long term causes as well as the influence of the media, the church and the citizens of the GDR themselves as main players in the short term. Additionally, the immediate events in the beginning of November 1989 are scrutinized in connection with the Fall of the Wall. The research question in two parts is whether the events around the 9th of November, 1989, can be labelled peaceful revolution and what the causes for that revolution are. What is the historical significance of the event and what was it derived from. Consistent with the primary and secondary sources used, the essay concludes that the...
