Walking Through the Park

By Curtis Glenn Jacobson

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Do you know which side of the gulf is waiting for you? Walking Through the Park is my written testimony of how God directed me through the first 54-years of life. It was inspired at a time when I was forced to re-evaluate who I was and where I was going. As I did so, I found that my events in life, and present circumstances, were not that different from those experienced by many others, and it made me feel good knowing I was not alone. God is in control He gives us free will to choose His guidance, and His best for our lives, or to choose to navigate through life on our own. Every story in the book is true. These are the events God used to direct, shape, and mold me. They reflect my personal failures and accomplishments. The characters are the people God used to push and pull me in different directions, the most important of which was Mom and Dad. The progression through the chapters is natural and follows the major periodical changes in...
