Lakes are very pretty and many people camp by them in the summer. They are also useful, because they store the water of the winter storms which would otherwise run away to the ocean. QUESTIONS. Tell what a pond is. Have you ever seen a lake? If so, describe it. Have you seen a land-slide after a heavy rain? Tell what happened. Why did the river leave its load in the lake? Of what value are lakes? Why is the water salty in some lakes? What is a meadow? How does the ocean differ from a lake? What is a delta? Is the land formed by deposit from a river ncn or poor? We have learned that soil is made...
