Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On her twenty-second birthday, Shannon Maguire spies a leprechaun in the back yard. Intent on making contact with the leprechaun, she rushes out the back door. As she steps onto the back porch, she falls into the Devil s Tomb. With the help of the leprechaun, they escape and land in the parallel world of Muirnin. In a day filled with surprises and frightening changes, Shannon learns she is the Crown Princess of Muirnin. Arriving at the Palace, a throng of fairies, elves, goblins, dragons, dwarves, and. there are more than she can name, greet her, cheering her escape from the Devil s Tomb and proclaiming her their Princess. Not everyone welcomes the arrival of the Princess. Chief among the dissenters is Prince Olcan, of the Unseelie race, who believes the tradition of having a human Queen is wrong. He seeks the crown for himself and is willing to kill anyone who challenges him. The Wizard Edwulf Magusson explains to Shannon that she may stay in Muirnin for two weeks. She must then return to her home world for at least two weeks in order to maintain the balance of time that exists between the two worlds. He also tells her the Crown of Muirnin disappeared, probably stolen by Olcan. Shannon must find the crown when she returns to Muirnin if she is to become Queen. She learns that the conflict over who should rule threatens to touch off a war could destroy both Muirnin and Earth. Shannon meets the handsome Lieutenant Sean Ceallaigh, a member of the Royal Guard tasked with protecting the Princess. She is fascinated with the young soldier. At the end...
