America Star Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 404 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 1.1in. Alexander Robinson spent over a half century in the fur trade. It was an unforgiving business that literally killed many more than one participant who made a lone misstep. It was the kind of profession that you learned by doing. If you were fortunate, you had a mentor to teach you the business of staying alive and prospering on the far foreword edge of civilization. You learned how to handle a whole variety of diseases, gun shot wounds, knife wounds, plus the occasional attack by large animals. You also learned to deal with varying Indian Tribes by learning their customs and language. By the time you learned your craft the winds of history had pushed the business further west. Alexander Robinson chose to stay with his family and farm for a living. It would prove to be a wise choice. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
