(Psalm 68: 11, Revised Version.) Whether the sweet singer of Israel meant to prophesy, or referred to the custom of the women proclaiming glad tidings after the victory, we live in a time when the words are literally true. The women of Christendom are awake and organized, sending missionaries to every portion of the globe. We are living in the times which the Revelator saw, when he said, I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people. The women, by their offerings, prayers, and service, are giving wings to the angel. There are six thousand two hundred and thirty messengers from Protestant churches now preaching the everlasting gospel in twenty times as many languages as were spoken on the day of Pentecost....
