The ability to use each tool should be mastered before undertaking the study of another. The lessons described have been given to the ninth, or senior, grammar grade of the public schools at Springfield, Mass., since the organization of the manual training-school at that place in 1886, classes of twelve to nineteen receiving one lesson per week of one and one-half hours duration, and commencing with September, 1892, the first half of them are now given to the eighth grade, classes receiving one lesson each fortnight.
