Excerpt: . finally the Paramanus of the Sthula Bhiitas. This is literally correct, but misses the significance of the doctrine of differentiation within the integrated, according to which the Tanmatras are all evolved, through the medium of Ahankara, in the cosmic matter of Experience (Mahat). The Conservation of Energy and of Mass)--the Transformation of Energy.--The Gunas (Reals), though assuming an infinite diversity of forms and powers, can neither be created nor destroyed. The totality of the Mass (Tamas), as well as of Energy (Rajas), remains constant, if we take account both of the manifested and the unmanifested, the actual and the potential. But the individual products of the evolutionary process--the concrete phenomenal modes resulting from the combined action of the original Mass, Energy, and Essence--are subject to addition and subtraction, growth and decay, which are only due to changes of collocation, and consequent changes of state from the potential to the actual (in other words, from the future to the present and from the present to the past, in a time series)--changes which are illusorily ascribed to the Reals themselves. The different collocations of Mass and Energy give birth to the divers powers of things, the various forms of Energy which may be classed as like and unlike; indeed, the course of Evolution from the Reals conforms to a fixed law, not only as regards the order of succession, but also as regards the appearance (and mutual relations) of like and unlike Energies. And this...
