The process of manufacture is a secret one, having been discovered by some one who is generally unknown either to science or practice; 2. The fertilizer, or food, either contains ingredients of which the whole world, outside of a favored few, is ignorant, or else certain ingredients are so wonderfully compounded as to produce marvelous results. The farmer is advised to refer to the agricultural department of his State for an opinion on the fertilizer offered him in every instance before buying. The bulletin further says that while the best fertilizing materials--superphosphates, potash salts, nitrates and ammonia salts, industrial by-products, such as tankage, dried blood, cotton-seed meal, etc.--have become standard articles of commerce and there is no good reason why fertilizers compounded from them should not stand on their merits and be sold under easily understood names, yet absurd names and extravagant claims have in many cases cast suspicion upon mixtures of these standard articles which are really high-grade fertilizers. J J J Foreign trade of the United States has been considerably increased by the publication, beginning with 1880, of the monthly consular reports of the Department of State. It is now proposed to issue these reports daily, as they are received by the Department, and to send them promptly to the various boards of trade or other commercial organizations interested in them. No doubt this important project will be put into execution in the near future. If so, it will be...
